noted that early in his involvement with anti-CASTRO organizations he had been furnishing information to ROBERT HURWITCH of the U.S. Department of State (USDS), but has discontinued this practice.

advised and it was confirmed by MARSHALL that when he was approached by ARTHUR and BUCHANAN and made aware of their plans, he advised MARSHALL of all the details and told him he did not want to represent the group but considered them foolhardy enough to cause serious trouble. He said he would represent the group if the U.S. Government would be interested in their activities, but wanted assurances from MARSHALL that all government agencies which should know of his cooperation would be so advised. He was told by MARSHALL to go ahead with the organization and that MARSHALL would inform the proper government agencies. The Bureau and Miami are aware of subsequent developments in this regard.

The same circumstances surrounded involvement with BENOIT when he advised MARSHALL of BENOIT's request.

also said that he considered his action in this regard to be a revelation of privileged information but felt that efforts of the instant organization were of a serious enough nature to affect the policy or security of the U. S. and that the information concerning the organization's plans properly belonged in the hands of U. S. authorities. He emphasized that at any time matters of such seriousness come to his attention, the fact that it is privileged information would not prevent him from furnishing it to the proper authorities.

identity be concealed. I made his request because he felt disclosure of his identity would affect his representation of and dealings with anti-CASTRO groups and MARSHALL made his request because is "in the middle of a big narcotics case," and working in the interest of the Bureau of Narcotics.

BENOIT advised that he had previously been in contact with a CIA representative named "CHARLEY" in the Bahamas and had received some financial support from CIA while in the Bahamas. BENOIT later told that "CHARLEY" from CIA had contacted him just after his arrival in Miami. but he did not disclose the details of this contact.
